—We welcome guest musician Wayne Foster Smith, son of long-time member Frances Smith, who is visiting from Berlin, where he teaches at Hochschule für Musik “Hanns Eisler” Berlin.
—We know that “social distancing” only means physical distancing out of concern for one another. It really means that nurturing spiritual, mental, emotional, social and relational connectedness is vital to our overall health and vitality. We’re all challenged, to be sure, but we are also enlivened and empowered by the everlasting power of God’s rainbow of love and light. This is a moment to grow in generosity and joyful hearts. Let’s stay steady, and be faithful and creative, offering all the gifts with which we have been blessed to hold one another through these times.

• Continue to give generously.
• Donations to the Westside Food Bank, so important especially to families whose kids aren’t getting breakfast or lunch at school, may be made at their main location or at their drop-off sites.
• Take care. Wash your hands. Do everything in your power to help stop the spread of the virus.
• Deepen the bonds of love amongst family, friends and neighbors in our new-found extra time together.
• Be creative. Reach out to one another with love and care.
• Check the church website for updates on Easter worship opportunities. www.santamonicaumc.org

UNISON PRAYER OF DEDICATION
Nathan Oney
All glory to you, giver of life, sufficient and full for all creation. Earth and sea and sky and all that lives declare your presence and love. Accept our praises. Renew your creation. Reveal your glory in and through all these lives, that we may walk humbly and joyfully with you, now and always. In Christ’s name we pray, Amen.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY COMMUNION
Nathan Oney
I invite you to take the communion elements you have in your home—a piece of bread or cracker and a cup of water or juice. After I consecrate the elements at the altar table, I invite us to commune all together, receiving the bread and cup which make Christ present and real to us in our bodies, hearts, and souls.

We experience the presence of Christ in our hearts through the grace of God which knows no walls or boundaries, in which there is no distance or separating. We are always truly “one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world!”

RESPONSIVE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION
Tricia Guerrero
God has caused light to shine on us and offered salvation to transform us.
We give thanks for the goodness of God whose steadfast love endures forever.
This is the day the Lord has made; let us continue to rejoice and be glad in it.
God has opened to us the gates of righteousness. We will go through them with joy. Amen.

OFFERTORY
The Holy City (Stephen Adams)
Anand Darcie, solo
Last night I lay a sleeping, There came a dream so fair, I stood in old Jerusalem, Beside the temple there. I heard the children singing, and ever as they sang, Methought the voice of Angels From Heaven in answer rang: “Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Lift up your gates and sing, Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King!”

And then methought my dream was chang’d, The streets no longer rang, Hush’d were the glad Hosannas The little children sang; The sun grew dark with mystery, The morn was cold and chill, As the shadow of a cross arose Upon a lonely hill. “Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Hark! how the Angels sing, Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna to your King.”

And once again the scene was chang’d, New earth there seem’d to be, I saw a Holy City Beside the tideless sea, the light of God was on its streets, The gates were open wide, And all who would might enter, And no one was denied. No need of moon or stars by night, Or sun to shine by day, It was the new Jerusalem That would not pass away. “Jerusalem! Jerusalem! Sing, for the night is o’er, Hosanna in the highest, Hosanna evermore!” (Frederic E. Weatherly)
