

SENTINEL

HORIZONS

BY REV. GREG BATSON

"Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things unseen." Hebrews 11:1

We begin the season of Advent this year on November 30 by lighting the first candle of the Advent wreath. The four candles around the wreath represent Hope, Peace, Joy and Love with the white candle at the center representing Jesus Christ. This year we focus on the candle of Hope. Our faith is rooted in hope for the salvation of the world. It is not a wish but a promise - a promise that God is with us always. On Christmas Eve, that is what we will proclaim: Jesus Christ, Emmanuel, the hope of the world, is born.

We are living into the promise of hope this season and we share that hope in a variety of ways. We experience it in our worship, music and prayer. We feel it when we gather together in fellowship. We share that hope when we volunteer our time and talents in the community. And we bring hope to those in need through our giving. We invite you to celebrate this Advent and Christmas season by participating in any of the events listed in this newsletter.

Let us prepare for the arrival of Jesus Christ once again, and the Hope that he brings to the world.

WALK THE LABYRINTH & CHAPEL OPEN FOR PRAYERS

Take a moment during the busy season for an hour to walk the labyrinth or visit the chapel. The Labyrinth laid in the Simkins Hall floor of First UMC is a replica of the Chartres Labyrinth laid in the cathedral around 1220 CE. Walking the Labyrinth is an ancient spiritual practice, a way to quiet our minds and open our spirits to the presence of the Holy.

ANGEL TREE PROJECT

Angel Tree is back for its 22nd year, once again led by church member Chris Ruud. This beloved church and community tradition brings holiday joy to local families served by Family Place/Upward Bound House by filling 26 laundry baskets with brand-new household items—gifts that help make a house feel like home. Chris is available after worship for two more Sundays to help you sign up. If you worship online or can't make it in person, you can still take part—just call or email Chris at 310.393.3255 or chr10is@yahoo.com to learn what's needed and how you can help. Wrapped gifts can be dropped off on Sundays or at the church office Monday–Thursday.
Sundays: December 7 & 14 in the Alcove (gifts due Dec 14)

A festive reception in Simkins Hall will follow the concert!

ALTERNATIVE CHRISTMAS FAIR

Christmas and gift-giving go together. The tradition started when the Magi came to the manger with gold, myrrh, and frankincense to laud the birth of Jesus. In the present day, gift-giving often seems to exist only for the benefit of retailers and other entrepreneurs. Each Advent, through the Alternative Christmas Fair, Missions Council gives us the chance to take "trade" out of tradition and to return to the spirit of gift-giving that impelled those three very wise men long ago – to rejoice in the birth of the Messiah. Mission Council carefully selects several local and global mission projects each year. You may choose as many as you wish, make a donation as a gift to a friend or loved one, and send a card announcing your gift. Come and let Mission Council help you get in touch with your inner Magi. This year's missions are:

- Children Youth and Family Collaborative
- Homeboy Industries
- The People Concern
- Upward Bound House
- Wesley Foundation at UCLA / 580 Cafe
- InnerChange

ADVENT BIBLE STUDY CONTINUES

Amy-Jill Levine's new study, A Child is Born, is the foundation of this year's Advent study. Her contention is that we cannot properly understand the birth of Jesus apart from the Old Testament material that paved the way for it, giving us a broader and richer picture of our Christian nativity stories.

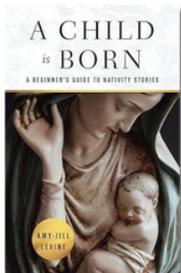

The class began November 23, and continues with in-person sessions led by Rev. Larry Young after worship on Sundays, and a Zoom class led by Bill Buxton on Monday evenings. Each session features a video keynote by Dr. Levine followed by discussion of the study book A Child is Born, which can still be ordered from Cokesbury or Amazon. A limited number of copies are also available at the Welcome Table. No sign-ups are necessary.

December classes: Sundays, December 7/14, 11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. in the Fireside Room

Mondays, December 1/8/15, via Zoom, 6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

Enjoy seasonal crafts, joyful caroling with members of ACT, and a special visit from Santa! Come share in the fun and celebrate the spirit of the season together. A light brunch will be served.

DECEMBER ONLINE MID-WEEK RECITAL

First UMC is pleased to present the Online December Mid-Week Recital, featuring Meagan Martin, mezzo soprano; Victoria Kirsch, piano. Program: Jane Austen at 250: A Musical Celebration. Mezzo-soprano Meagan Martin and pianist Victoria Kirsch present a musical celebration of the beloved British author Jane Austen, who was born nearly 250 years ago to the day on December 16, 1775. A highlight of the program will be "Marianne Dashwood: Songs of Love and Misery," a song cycle by composer Aferdian and librettist Marella Martin Koch that is inspired by one of the sisters at the heart of Austen's first published novel, Sense and Sensibility.

BLUE ADVENT: A CONTEMPLATIVE WORSHIP SERVICE

While the Advent/Christmas season is known as a time of joy, merriment, and excited expectation it can also include feelings of fear, grief, loneliness, or maybe just the need to step away from relentless cheer. Our lives are complex. Advent and Christmas can be too. The Blue Advent service, led by Rev. Keri Olsen Paget and the Spiritual Formation Counsel, is designed to hold the complexity of the season with gentle grace while in community. Come pray, sing, and worship God-With-Us remembering that through Christ grief and fear dance with gratitude and hope.

STEWARDSHIP CONTINUES

The 2025 Annual Giving Stewardship Campaign invites us each and all to prayerfully consider our financial pledge to support the mission and ministries of First UMC. Through November we heard First UMC members give a Stewardship Moment in worship. Here are a couple of quotes:

"We pray for our friends and neighbors, but we also stand by to help in material ways—whether that's opening the chapel to members of the Community Methodist Church in the Palisades, or helping the parents of our preschool replace the sand here because of toxic fallout from the smoke....As our friend Martha Ross said so beautifully last year: this is not like paying a utility bill. This is an expression of my values—who I am, and who I want to be. And I do want to be the hope..." - Sam Johnson

"One of my North Stars is the notion of leading a creative, well-led life. The holistic effect of all our membership here really resonates with me in terms of that goal. Also, our giving over the years has opened our hearts as we've participated in supporting other special causes. This has been an integral part of our individual faith journeys as we go forward."

- John and Johanna Stustman
