This, this is where children belong, welcomed as part of the worshipping throng.

Water, God's word, bread and cup, prayer and song: This is where children belong.

As the congregation sings, all children are invited to come forward.

I Am a Child of God

I am a child of God; You are God's child, it's true. Children of God are called to love one another, as Jesus taught to do.

Following the Children's Message children (6 months through 7th grade) will be led to Sunday School on the second floor of the Education Building.

*UNISON PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Tricia Guerrero

Merciful Deliverer, you part the waters when we feel trapped and forgive debts too great to repay. In the face of fear and brokenness, you lead us with compassion and grace. May the gifts we bring today reflect our deep gratitude for your mercy. Let them support ministries of reconciliation and acts of healing, justice, and welcome. Teach us to lead not with judgment, but with generosity, recognizing that what we have, we hold by your mercy. Bless these offerings and bless us as stewards of your kingdom, always seeking to build a world where grace is not rare but abundant. Amen.

In observance of World Alzheimer's Awareness Day, All Community Theater (ACT) presents the world premiere of The Cottages: Scenes from Lives Interrupted. Written by Stephen Hawk, the poetic play deals with many forms of memory issues, not only Alzheimer's. It is a true look at life in a memory care home where the residents are treated with compassion and understanding, and the rich stories and humanity that emerge as a result. The free performance will be followed by a discussion between the audience, the cast, and representative Monica Moore, M.S.G., from the Alzheimer's Association. Refreshments and useful resources will also be provided following the performance.

"Abide in me as I abide in you." — John 15:4

Abide is a weekend retreat designed to help men reconnect with God, themselves, and one another. Together, we'll explore what it means to abide in Christ in the ordinary rhythms of everyday life. Through worship, prayer, reflection, honest conversation, and spiritual practices, participants will explore ways to deepen their relationship with God. Just as importantly, Abide is an invitation into deeper kinship. We hope to create space for participants to begin building relationships marked by trust, encouragement, and prayer with one another. Because following Jesus was never meant to be a solitary journey. Abide in Christ.
